

2017 Student Scholarship Competition & Master Class

Sponsored by the Utah Baroque Ensemble

Open to all Utah County music students in grades 9-12.

Competition: The Competition is open to both vocal and instrumental artists from Utah County performing a Baroque period piece. Audition recordings in video format may be submitted online from February 1 through March 1, 2017. ($20 application fee) Finalists will be chosen based on these audition recordings.

Finalists will perform their Baroque piece in an adjudicated recital at the Orem Public Library on Wednesday evening March 29, 2017. One finalist will be awarded a $500 scholarship and will perform at the Utah Baroque Ensemble concert in Orem on April 30, 2017. Other performance opportunities may be available, and several other scholarships will be awarded.

Elementary and junior high students are encouraged to apply by the same method and perform at the March 29 recital non-competitively.

If you have further questions about the competition, contact John Lamb at: jdlambda@byu.edu

Master Class: Students are encouraged to register for a Baroque Master Class to help prepare for the Competition taught by BYU violin Professor Alex Woods. The class will be held Monday Feb 13, 2017 3:00-5:30 p.m. at the Piano Gallery Recital Hall in Orem. NOTE: Registration for the Class ($20) also covers the entry fee for the Competition. Questions? email Cynthia Langford at cynthia.langford35@gmail.com

Please go to www.utahbaroque.org for more information.

